

XM Satellite Radio should most deffinately be allowed to carry traffic and weather channels.I listen to them every morning. They are also extremely helpful when i am driving out of town and dont know the local traffic and weather stations.